Dear Mr. Mann:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey to address the American Jewish Congress at an informal brunch in Southampton on August 26th.

Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to travel plans and full schedule of official duties, he must decline the honor.

Sincerely,

Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing to invite you to be an honored guest and speaker at an informal brunch in Southampton, New York on Sunday morning, August 26th, at 11:00 A.M., at the home of Maureen and Marshall Cogan.

The occasion is an annual event at which a small number of friends of the American Jewish Congress, primarily residents of the Hamptons, gather to express their support of the American Jewish Congress, of which Marshall Cogan, our host for this occasion is a Senior Vice-President. (Mr. Cogan, formerly of Cogan, Berlind and Weill is Co-Chairman of the Board of General Felt Industries and President of Knoll International.)

You may know something about the activities and purposes of the American Jewish Congress. A mutual friend who has been with us on similar occasions, Edwin Meese, is probably somewhat more familiar with the organization and its various programs.

I very much hope you will find it possible to accept this invitation. I know you will find it a pleasant, informal and not overly taxing experience. We would be honored and delighted to have you with us.

Sincerely,

Theodore R. Mann
